As the Australian importer and distributor of Speedlock products, The Rack'n Stack Warehouse group are conscious of the importance of product design compliance with AS4084-1993 steel storage racking regulations.

To make sure the products meet these standards and have relevant documentation The Rack'n Stack Warehouse have had two independent bodies, JCU University in Townsville and Rockfield Technologies (www.rockfieldtechnolgies.com), test products that require these ratings.

In all cases the products have met and exceeded the required load ratings.
